

page 8 and original Fig. 1. It is to be noted that original Fig. 1 and original Fig. 6 are identical, yet Fig. 1 is marked to be representative of the prior art and Fig. 6 is representative of the instant claimed invention. The combination of original Fig. 6 (1) and the information at lines 5-18 of page 8 fully support new Fig. 3. Entry thereof is solicited.

New Figure 6 is also similar to original Figs. 1 and 6. It too adds some elements, that find ample support in the specification, to what was disclosed in original Fig. 1 as being in the prior art. Reference is made to the material at line 23 of page 14 through, and including, line 4 of page 16 for the matter in this figure that has been added to original Fig. 1. Therefore, this new figure does not present any prohibited new matter. Entry thereof is solicited.
